Rep. Steffen Announces District Office Hours

Office Hours Held to Focus on 2015-2017 Budget

Madison- Today, State Representative David Steffen (R-Howard) announced he will be holding in-district office hours to meet with constituents and discuss state-related issues including the 2015-17 biennial budget.

Last week, Governor Walker revealed his 2015-17 two-year budget proposal for the state of Wisconsin. The budget is now in the hands of the Legislature for review. Representative Steffen will host office hours to provide a forum for constituents to express their concerns, ask questions, and provide input as it relates to the budget.

“Now that the Governor has unveiled his budget, I will be working with my colleagues in the Legislature to review and shape the budget in such a way that it meets the needs and priorities of Wisconsin’s residents. Meeting and discussing budget concerns with constituents is vital and will be a key component throughout this budget review process,” said Rep. Steffen.

Rep. Steffen will be available to meet with constituents at the location and time listed below:
